

LOCALS

Be sure and attend the dance at the Windsor this evening.

Heavy rains reported on east Maui, but central Maui is still suffering from drouth.

Are you fond of Budweiser Beer? If so, look up Hackfeld and Co.'s ad on fourth page.

Judge Kaleikau is presiding as District Magistrate of Wailuku during Judge McKay's absence.

Quite a number of travelling salesmen from Honolulu have been stocking up the Maui trade this week.

It is understood that the Bismark Stables business may be closed out within the next two or three months.

Milk and butter are becoming very scarce on Maui, owing to the continued drouth in the pasture lands.

The sound of the hammer and the saw is becoming familiar music on every street in Wailuku, and the end is not yet.

Have you tried some of that Bartlett Spring water handled by Lovejoy & Co. of Wailuku? If not, order a case. Cool, refreshing and healthful.

See Morgan's notice of sale of vehicles and harness on September 2. It would not be a bad idea to run over to Honolulu and take in the sale.

If you want any job work done ring up the News job office and tell us what you want. Bill Heads, Letter Heads, and general plantation work a specialty.

Dr. R. M. Stith of Spreckelsville has returned to Philadelphia to accept a position in the navy, and his place is being filled by Dr. Dinagar of Kihai, who looks after the health of both plantations.

Here is something good for Maui. The Pacific Cycle & Manufacturing Co. advertise the Goodform Closet sets which are just the thing to protect your clothes from the dust and keep your Sunday coat and trousers in good shape. Write to them, post office box 751, Honolulu, for particulars.

See new ad of oil shares for sale in the National Oil & Investment Co. Mr. Nat Black of Spreckelsville represents this company on Maui, and has placed a number of blocks of this stock. California is making rapid strides in the matter of oil development, and fortunes are being made in the business.

P. Johnny, the ex-chef of the Maui Hotel, who was tried before Judge Kaleikau for assault with a deadly weapon on Manager Haganacamp, was acquitted, the judge holding that the wicked looking cleaver introduced in evidence was in reality only an innocent and innocuous egg beater. Lucky Johnny.

The road between Wailuku and Kahului is filling up with ruts and small stones, making riding and driving very uncomfortable. As soon as funds are on hand, some work should be done on this road as there is more travel on it than on any road on the island. The pond across the road at Kahului is still becoming deeper and more dangerous, and will become simply impassable by and by, if something is not done.

Ulupalakua Sold

To Henry Waterhouse & Co.

The Kahikinui Ranch Co. has been increased by an addition of the broad acres of Ulupalakua, otherwise known as the Rose Ranch. There was an attempt to buy the Rose Ranch by Waterhouse & Co. at the time that the Kahikinui deal was closed, but that end of the deal fell through, consequently it is no surprise to learn that successful negotiations were renewed.

Dr. J. W. Raymond, who has been the controlling spirit in the whole transaction, has consolidated a splendid property, and at the ruling price of beef, will make the Kahikinui Ranch Co. one of the most solid and best paying properties on the Islands. He will probably make his home at Ulupalakua, and will doubtless revive much of its ancient glory.

It is the expressed purpose of the Company to give Maui the benefit of the enterprise in the matter of plenty of fat beef, and the surplus will find its way to the Honolulu market.

Aloha Lodge, K. of P.

Active steps are being taken to raise the money necessary to build the new castle hall for the K. of P. lodge at Wailuku.

The method of raising funds will be to issue $6,000 of building bonds, to run ten years, if not called in sooner at the option of the lodge. These bonds will bear 8 per cent interest. Over $4,000 of bonds have already been subscribed by the members of the lodge, who will probably take all the remaining bonds, although at the suggestion of the finance committee, a subscription paper is being circulated.

As soon as the bonds are subscribed, plans will be secured for a handsome two story building, the lower floor of which will contain three large stores, one of which will probably be fitted up as an up-to-date restaurant, so that supper can be served on the premises for parties and balls.

The building will probably be at least four months in course of erection, and subscribers to the bonds will not be called upon for full payment, but can make monthly payments for four months.

It is the intention of the lodge to let the lodge room for dances and parties, and its location near the railroad depot will make it an ideal location for that purpose. The ground originally surveyed proving too small, the H. C. & S. Co. kindly enlarged its boundaries giving the lodge a full quarter of an acre, at the nominal rent of $1.00 per year for a term of twenty years.

Hammer and Saw.

The era of improvement begun in Wailuku about a year ago, shortly after the advent of the News, has continued without intermission to the present time, and the construction of new buildings or repair of old ones no longer attracts particular attention.

Arrangements are about completed to build a castle hall for the K. of P. Lodge of Wailuku, and as soon as plans are drawn and adopted, work will begin.

A large and elegant dancing pavilion has just been completed in the yard of the Windsor Hotel. The initial dance will be given this evening, and one every two weeks thereafter.

Mr. A. Enos has finished the construction of a two story cottage in the rear of his store, on the corner of Main and High streets.

Mr. W. G. Scott has purchased a lot from Joseph Cockett on Market street, extension or South Market street, 100 feet from the corner of Main street, having a frontage of 70 feet by a depth of 135 feet, and he will within a month, begin the erection of a residence for himself. This is a charming locality, and will soon fill up with handsome buildings. The Japanese have purchased Lot 4, the last lot in the row on South Market and will at once erect a church. Negotiations are pending for the purchase of the corner lot by a prominent Wailuku merchant, and also for the purchase of the other lots by different Wailukans who want to build homes for themselves.

The Chinese are rapidly building up both sides of Kalua avenue, a foundation having just been laid for a cosy little store to be built on the S. W. corner of Market and Kalua Ave.

Lumber has been recently shipped to Mr. R. C. Searle at his ranch at Honolulu, where he will erect a large, handsome residence in the near future.
